About This Content

A cold winter has hit Carcassonne. The citizens waste very little time before preparing hot beverages and sweet pastries. Life around Carcassonne slows down. Occasionally, the people catch a glimpse of a new character, the gingerbread man.

The gingerbread man offers an additional possibility to score each time someone draws a gingerbread man tile.

carcassonne winter edition gingerbread man rules

If you like point and click adventure and vr games, Dead secret is for you.

I really liked the puzzles in it and the story kept me hooked pretty easily.

The big weakness of that game is it's lenght, 16$ for 2 hours of gameplay is poor.

Good thing I got it in a bundle.

. Absolutely amazing game for my son. He can improve his mouse skills. He is very good in touchscreens like all kids, but good old mouse skills are only improving. I wish there are more games like this.

. Quest items can get stuck in places where you cannot get them back. Cannot abandon quest. Nor does the quest log realize that the character doesn't have the needed items yet it tells you to do something with them. Technically the quest was filled but still couldn't progress. Sad to see such glitches still happen on the main quest. Lost too much time to want to play it again. Be very careful if you want to enjoy the game because a misclick can cost too much progress.. Fun game to play. THEY ripped me for twin blades Had a set wanted the extra parts So angry Yes i sent in a ticket days ago Still waiting

. Tentative positive. It's not great, but for genre junkies like me, it's worth a play (especially on sale). It's a good passtime for a few hours, especially if you complete everything.

For one thing, it's the most challenging Midnight Mysteries yet. It's still extremely linear, and woe be to he who forgets to click a clover before solving a puzzle, but getting through the game and the bonuses can lead to some hair loss, without feeling like it's been overly unfair.

The only exception is the quality of the Hidden Object scenes themselves; they're very substandard, with almost everything being brown-ish, a low resolution that makes it nearly impossible to differentiate, and an inordinate number of things aren't in logical locations. One of the touches that was nice about #3 was that everything looked drawn and rendered just for the scene; here there's lots of re-used objects with wrong lighting or hidden in edges they would never be in real life. In other words, it's lazy.

The plot and writing is definitely better than Devil on the Mississippi, but not by much. The character graphics are about the same, still no voice acting. Don't play for the story, obviously, but I do appreciate their fresh takes on real historical controversies\conspiracy theories, and it actually kind of worked this time around.. I'm a bassist and a huge Batman\Jurassic Park fan

I've had a lot of fun with this, and I really encourage the devs to do more of this sort of thing. PLEASE?!??

The thumb down is not for Mai, but the offer. You just give the buyer two costumes, with only different color?! Pay another money for more costumes, come on! Don't bother look at this one, just buy the bundle with her costumes + KOF mash up to save your money.

I love old classic game where you must finish several requirements to get additional costume, not buying it.

Well aside of that, I really love this character, she's pretty well designed. It's just annoying that I should using the same costume before able to afford her additional costumes.

Tips for anyone who've bought this DLC already, you better buy the additional DLC in unit, that is the debut costumes and KOF mash up. Buying the bundles will spend more money.. This game is still a lot of fun after all these years.

I honestly have to recommend it. It's really good.

Everything about this game is perfectly executed.

And I'm going to give this game a positive review.

I don't have anything negative to say. It's perfect.

You should play it with a friend: It's really worth it.. Not impressed - Here is a video of me not being impressed:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SuHdQT0K12w&t=84s>. Got it with a Steam Coupon for 10 cents. Well basically this is a space shooter, kinda like asteroids. You pick your ship in the beginning with different attributes and then shoot other ships in a quadratic area. On your way you pick up items like a shield or temporary firing modes. Presented to you with neon pink and purple aesthetics and a really suprisingly great chiptune soundtrack for such a little game. After 10 minutes you get every achievement and those other 8 hours of my playtime were basically just idling for the cards.

I guess its alright if you like to get high scores and have not much to do and want to spend your time quickly. Otherwise there isn't much to say about here to be honest.

. Great game to play with friends. The multiplayer has yet to work, so you would have to manually add your friend, and then invite them to your lobby. There are some bugs that need to be fixed, such as the mask not showing. Limited amount of maps at the moment, but soon there will be new maps with different formatting hopefully. Overall a great game that shows potential.
